

September 2019

New Timeline Available

An updated timeline for the QRIS Revision process is now available. This timeline and many more details pertaining to the revision can be found on the QRIS Revision webpage located on the Delaware Stars website.

QRIS Information Meetings

Thank you to everyone who attended the recent round of structural recommendation meetings - we appreciate your feedback and perspective! The QRIS revision team will continue revising the new structure based on this feedback. If you were not able to make it, the presentation slides and proposed structural model are available on the QRIS Revision web page.

As part of the next step, the QRIS revision advisory committee will be forming sub-committees to begin to revise the Delaware Stars standards, and provider membership is needed. If interested, please email John Fisher-Klein.
