REACH

A newsletter for early childhood education professionals

Dear Early Childhood Professionals,

Welcome to the August issue of REACH! As we embrace the final weeks of summer and prepare for the energy of a new school year, this edition is filled with valuable resources and exciting opportunities. We're delighted to share insights from our inaugural "Let's GROW Outside!" initiative, including a Provider Spotlight focusing on one program's embrace of gardening with children. Our Coach's Corner article offers practical guidance on effective room arrangement; combine these tips with the visual supports resources shared below to enhance your behavior management approach. This month also brings important updates on the Quality Improvement System, including the FY26 Quality Improvement Award process, and a reminder that registration is now open for the 1st State Family Child Care Conference. We encourage you to explore these resources as you plan for a successful fall.

With warm regards,

Kristy Sheffler
Interim Co-Director, DIEEC

DIEEC Action Items

1st State Family Child Care Conference: Registration is OPEN!

Registration for the fourth annual 1st State Family Child Care Conference is now open! This year's conference will be held on Saturday, October 11, at the Clayton Hall Conference Center in Newark, DE. Your registration includes continental breakfast, lunch, afternoon coffee break/refreshments, a conference t-shirt, five hours of quality assured professional development, swag bags, raffle tickets, access to vendors, professional headshots, and free parking! We can't wait to see our family child care community at the conference as we explore this year's theme, "Simple Steps, Big Impact."

Don't miss out! This year, participants will select their breakout sessions during registration. Register today to get your first choice!

Harvesting Success: Celebrating the First Year of Let's Grow Outside

Over the past 8 months, DIEEC's "Let's GROW Outside!" initiative has been empowering early childhood professionals to cultivate edible gardens, transforming outdoor spaces into vibrant learning environments. Through a blend of hands-on sessions, expert coaching, and free materials, participants gained the skills and resources to bring their garden visions to life. Read on to celebrate the successes of our first cohort and see how these programs are learning to harvest joy and learning with their children!

Provider Spotlight: Diana Mercado, Pirulo's Child Care and Learning Center

When Diana Mercado applied to DIEEC's Let's GROW Outside! initiative on behalf of Pirulo's Child Care and Learning Center, she saw a great educational opportunity for the children. However, she also had another motivation: self-care. Read about her gardening journey in this month's Provider Spotlight.

Meeting the Needs of All Children

As you prepare for a new group of children in the fall, or just reset for your current group, one aspect to consider is utilizing visual supports in the classroom. Visual supports can complement and support verbal instructions and requests in a way that is understandable and encourages engagement. There is a variety of printable, ready-to-use supports available on the Visual Supports page of the Head Start website. Each includes guidance for utilizing them “to increase participation, engagement, and learning” for children in your care.

This Week: A Refreshed DIEEC Website is Coming Your Way!

Our website has had a “glow-up,” designed with you in mind. With a new look, improved organization, and easier navigation, finding what you need will be easier than ever. From Quality Improvement support to professional learning and our all-new searchable Resource Hub, you'll be able to quickly access the tools and information that elevate your work.

Professional Development Opportunity: Delaware Wolf Trap Early Learning Through the Arts

This fun, hands-on professional development program is designed just for early childhood educators and their little learners, ages 3–5. The best part? You get to take part right alongside your students during the school day! Over the course of the program, you'll earn 12 professional development hours while teaming up with a talented Wolf Trap teaching artist. Read the flyer for more information.

Quality Improvement Planning

UQuality Improvement System Policies and Procedures Manual- Updates for FY26

The Delaware Department of Education (DDOE) and Office of Early Learning (OEL) have updated Delaware's Quality Improvement System (QIS) Policies and Procedures Manual, which includes important information for FY26's Quality Improvement Award (QIA). The updated guide will be shared by OEL and posted to DIEEC's website this week.

As in previous years, to be eligible for a FY26 QIA, programs must be actively engaged in quality improvement efforts. With the support of a DIEEC Quality Improvement Specialist (QISp), programs will reflect on their areas of growth and build a quality improvement plan (QIP).

If your program is interested in applying for the September 15th award date, it is strongly recommended to start the QIP process now. Developing a QIP is a multistep process, and requests to work with a QISp will be scheduled in the order they are received. Starting now will help ensure your program has time to complete all the required steps before the deadline.
